

A Multi-Denominational Spiritual Experience
For Oakland Awaits and Invites You to

Mother's Morning-Mourning

Renewing our community spirit with compassion

We love Oakland.

Oakland is where we live...and where many die violently.

Our mothers mourn the loss of their children, young and old, to violence. At least three times a year, they (and we) live with vivid memories of their loss – a child's birthday, the anniversary of their death, and Mother's Day.

Let us come together to show our fellow Oaklanders how much we care.

Please join us for a gathering of love and compassion,
creativity and spirit...and hope.

Saturday, May 12th

Lake Merritt & Frank Ogawa Plaza

9 a.m. – 12 p.m.

9 – 9:15 Lake Merritt (gather on 20th and Harrison side)
Silent prayer and meditation before a silent walk to City Hall Pavilion (Frank Ogawa Plaza).

10 – 12 Frank Ogawa Plaza for music, poetry, dance, and ritual.

Wear: Red – the color of blood, life, death and creativity

Bring: Bells or gongs; a photograph of loved ones lost to violence in Oakland; and an item for the altar.

All are welcome.

Music, Dance, Poetry, Meditation

Talisman Singers
Allen Temple Baptist Church
Community of Mindful Living
Interplay
and more...

For more information, visit www.boundlesshearts.org or call 510-482-6409.

Organized by Boundless Hearts. Sponsored by Allen Temple Baptist Church, Bread for the Journey, Ella Baker Center for Human Rights Silence the Violence Project, InterPlay, Holy Names University & Sophia Center, Kehilla Community Synagogue, The Lorrain Taylor Foundation, Sagrada Sacred Arts Gifts & Books, Talisman, Traveling with the Turtle Women's Spirituality and Peacemaking Program, and Councilmember Jean Quan.